Re: Authorization to use VIVA drawings
Date: November 2, 2004

Dear Mr. Peter Banwell,

The VIVA Green Lighting Line Voltage Socket Design, which was selected by the evaluation committee, will be available for public use, on an open protocol and on a royalty free basis. VIVA Green Lighting looks forward to working with the EPA and industry members to answer any questions or comments regarding the Line Voltage Socket Design.

Best Regards,

Jason Chen
President
